Two of the seven bedrooms have their own massage room, the master-suite terrace has a heated plunge pool. There's a staff to coordinate everything, and guests have access to the Four Seasons up the road.

Palmasola offers guests 22,000-square-feet of interior and exterior living spaces comprised of eleven beautifully designed structures in a village-like setting. All food and beverages are included (with a few exceptions of course) as well as an initial bar set up.

Property Detail: The entire estate is comprised of eleven structures assembled in a village-like design. With two residences, two or three families with children or seven couples can enjoy the Palmasola experience and have individual living spaces so they can also have time to themselves.

Collectively there are nine bedrooms, each with in-suite bathroom.
